

Student Learning Outcomes for B.A. in African American Studies

1. Have a competent understanding of the contributions and challenges of societies and cultures established by the people of the African Diaspora.
2. Have an in-depth knowledge of African American culture through the study of racial formation, gender and sexuality, literature, film, and the visual arts.
3. Write critical and analytical essays addressing topics in the discipline using primary texts and theoretical rationale.
4. Demonstrate their research in both written and oral presentations.