

Student Learning Outcomes for B.A. in East Asian Cultures

1. Speak Mandarin Chinese, Japanese or Korean at the basic level, demonstrating a limited ability to engage in face to face interactions in the informal speaking contexts.
2. Develop a broad understanding of the major cultural issues of the Chinese, Japanese, and Korean societies within the social and historical context of the respective country as well as the interaction across the national boundaries within East Asia.
3. Apply critical thinking skills and demonstrate English writing skills.