

Student Learning Outcomes for B.A. in English

1. Command a basic understanding of literary history, of the history of criticism and theory, and of multi-cultural literary traditions.
2. Write clear and complex expository and argumentative essays and to make clear and coherent oral presentations.
3. Interpret written works with the tools of rhetorical, cultural, and literary analysis.
4. Develop research skills using traditional and electronic resources.
5. Cultivate a lifelong intellectual curiosity.