

UCI Assessment Grant Program—Spring 2009 Proposal Abstracts

- David Pan, German:

The German department seeks to develop an assessment plan that will provide information on student goals, language skill development, and research and writing skill development. The basic components of the plan involve student surveys that include a language assessment, a written assessment, individual student portfolios, a year-long advising program, and faculty evaluation of each component.